

Stats for Victims who Report after an Anonymous Exam
SART Listserv
November 2006

Issue: Does anyone have stats on how many non-reporting victims choose to report within the 30-90 days of a forensic exam?

Background: A State is moving towards making forensic exams available to non-reporting victims.

Florida (Lakeland)

- A Rape Crisis Center is tracking this in their jurisdiction.
- The Center has had 3 unreported exams
- After the victims received services, they decided to report the assault to the police.
