

Resources related to children

Seeing children as part of a SANE team has unique challenges and responsibilities. It is important that nurses seeing pediatric patients remain up-to-date in the field of child maltreatment. To do this, staying connected to what is happening nationally within medical and justice-based systems, as well as establishing a system of peer review and quality improvement is critical. The following is a list of resources that can often assist with some of these challenges:

The American Academy of Pediatrics Committee on Child Abuse and Neglect

<http://www2.aap.org/sections/childabuseneglect/aboutCOCAN.cfm>

The American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children

<http://www.apsac.org/>

The Ray Helfer Society

<http://www.helpersociety.org/>

National Children's Alliance

<http://www.nationalchildrensalliance.org/>

Family Justice Center Alliance

<http://www.familyjusticecenter.org/>

About the author

Jennifer Pierce-Weeks is project director at the International Association of Forensic Nurses and a practicing forensic nurse examiner at Memorial Hospital University of Colorado Health in Colorado Springs, CO. She has worked in the field of nursing for more than 27 years, and is board certified in adult/adolescent and pediatric SANE practice. She is a nationally recognized trainer on sexual assault, intimate partner violence, child maltreatment, and strangulation. She also provides consultation and technical assistance services for a diverse number of disciplines, including the U.S. military and in Indian country.

About this publication

This publication is part of the SANE Sustainability Education Project. For more information about this project, visit <http://www.nsvrc.org/projects/sane-sustainability>

This project was supported by Grant No. 2011-TA-AX-K077 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice (OVW DOJ). The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this course are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the OVW DOJ. © National Sexual Violence Resource Center and International Association of Forensic Nurses 2014. All rights reserved.