Learning Outcomes

- Understand the differences between services provided to survivors and respondents
- Identify the ways that providing respondent services can serve both survivors and the institution
- Understand the national landscape of respondent support services at institutions across the country and implications for your own campus

Introduction of Terms

Equal vs. equitable

Safety planning and risk reduction

Importance of person-first language

Stress – External events that tax our typical coping strategies

Crisis – When coping mechanisms are overwhelmed and external support is needed

Trauma – Psychobiological response that is sustained after experiencing an acute awareness of a threat to life/physical safety

Landscape Analysis Research – Survey Participants

- Participants
  - 251
- Type of Institution
  - 52% public, four-year
  - 38% private, non-profit, four year
  - 6% public, two-year
  - 2% international
- Most Represented State
  - California
- Institution Size
  - 9% from 1,000 to 4,999 students
  - 21% from 5,000 to 9,999 students
  - 23% from 10,000 to 19,999 students
  - 47% more than 20,000 students

Landscape Analysis Research – Services Offered

- More than 50% of institutions provided one or more of the following:
  - Explaining rights and assisting in the hearing process
  - Referring to on- and off-campus resources
  - Assisting in accessing interim measures and accommodations
  - Assisting in adherence to interim sanctions, maintaining boundaries, and understanding protective orders
  - Accompanying to conduct meetings or hearings
  - Operating as a liaison between other offices
  - Services to students currently being investigated, recently found responsible, or those re-entering following institutional separation

Landscape Analysis Research – Services Offered

- Fewer than 50% of institutions offered:
  - Referrals to legal services
  - Services to students transferring with transcript notation or those on the sex-offender registry upon acceptance

Landscape Analysis Research – Services Offered

- When asked what services were not offered to both parties, xx% said:
  - Confidential advocacy and support
  - Medical services
  - Counseling
- Very few institutions offered services to:
  - Students transferring into campus and had been found responsible at another institution
  - Students entering and also on the sex offender registry

Landscape Analysis Research – Outreach & Education

- Institutions primarily educate via university sexual misconduct policy (63%) and their website (49%)
- 35% of survey respondents do not educate the campus community

What We Know — And Don't Know — About Adolescent and Adult Sex Offenders

All You Would Want to Know About Adolescent and Adult Sex Offenders

Sex Offender Management Assessment and Planning Initiative

A SMART Office report documenting current research and practice in sex offender management.

▶ LEARN MORE

- We don't know the full population of sex abusers, thus we don't know what percentage are registered sex offenders.
- However, based on victimization prevalence research, we know that registered sex offenders are a small percentage of all sexual abusers (15+ data sources).

Findings: Etiology

- No simple answer to why people engage in this behavior.
- Problem of sexual offending is too complex to attribute solely to a single theory (multifactor theories stronger).
- RED FLAG: This is what ALL sex offenders do...

What do we know — and don't know — about respondents?

SMART.GOV | @DOJSMART

- On campuses, schools may classify sexual misconduct as policy violations, often defined more broadly than criminal offenses.
- Some students may be accused of sexual misconduct, but not found responsible.

What We Know About Respondents

- Difference in behaviors
- Differences in those who exhibit those behaviors
- Differences in campus responses
- Services for people who have not been reported by seeking help

ABA Criminal Justice Section Task Force

ABA Criminal Justice Section Task Force on College Due Process Rights and Victim Protections: Recommendations for Colleges and Universities in Resolving Allegations of Campus Sexual Misconduct, June 2017

E. Sanction

In the event of a finding of responsibility, the consensus of the Task Force is that a particular sanction should not be presumed or required. Instead, the Task Force proposes that sanctioning should be decided on an individualized basis taking into account the facts and circumstances including mitigating factors about the respondent, the respondent's prior disciplinary history, the nature and seriousness of the offense, and the effect on the victim and/or complainant as well as the university community. The Task Force believes that a presumption of expulsion may have unintended consequences such as discouraging reporting and a finding of responsibility.

Additional Possible Functions of Respondent Services Personnel

- Reintegration after a finding of not responsible
- Reintegration after a separation from the institution
- Assessment of admission if separation occurred from another institution
- Transcript notation and education goals
- Connecting respondents to community resources

Institutional Placement of Services

- Personnel serving each party
  - Same for responding and reporting parties (48%)
  - Different for responding vs. reporting parties (52%)
- Supervision
  - Dean of Students (27%)
  - Non-clinical case management office (21%)
- Confidentiality
  - FERPA, HIPAA, and state licensure

Landscape Analysis Research – Training

- In-house training is most common (94%)
- Consistent resources or oversight were not assessed, however institutions also utilized:
  - Online training (31%)
  - Training/certification by a national organization (41%)
  - Training/certification by a community organization (20%)

Making the Case for Providing Respondent Services

Ensures solid outcomes for survivors

Better outcomes for respondents found not responsible

Repairing harm to the community

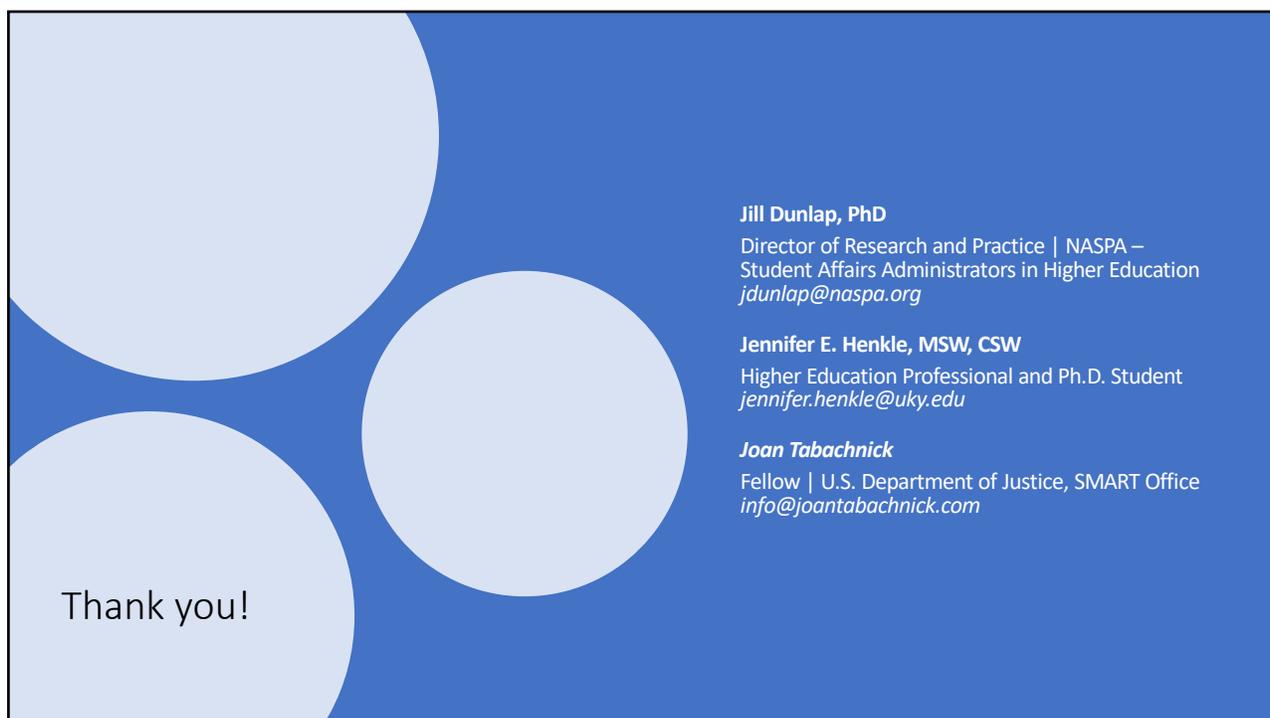

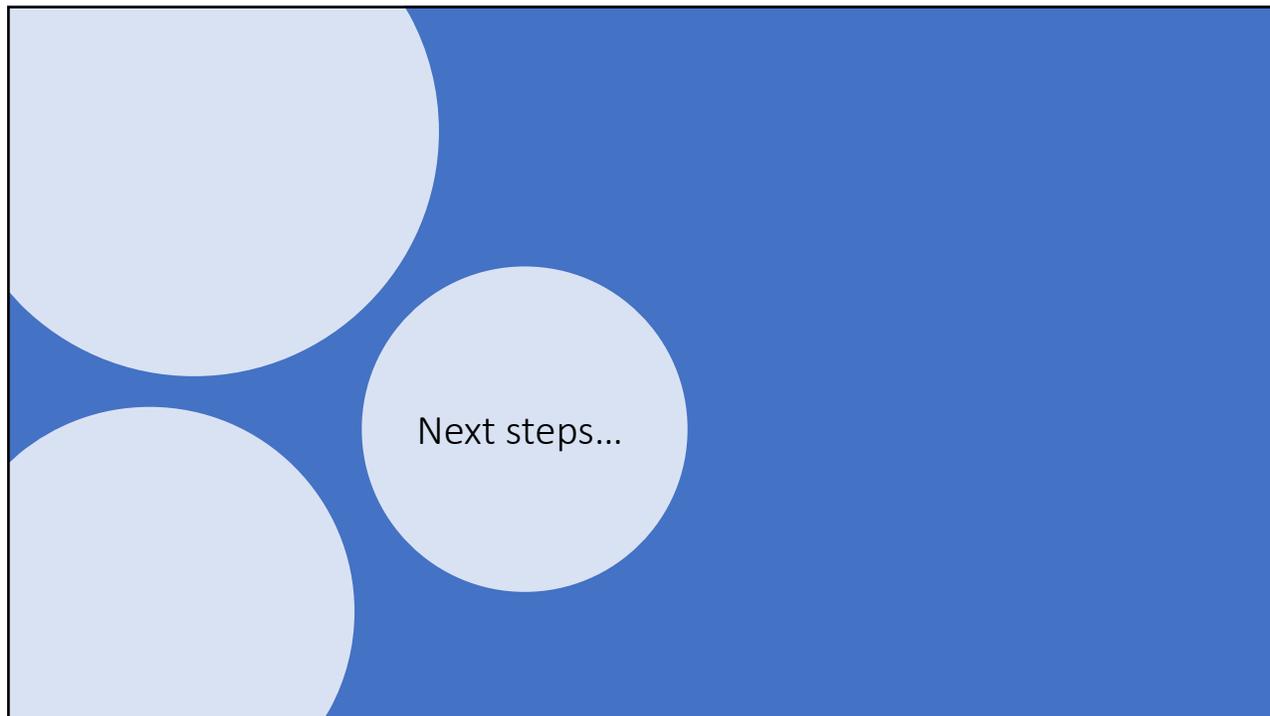

- Reduces likelihood of liability in case of litigation
- Impact on prevention efforts
- Prevents further retaliation or re-traumatization

Landscape Analysis Research – Recommendations

---

- Training for those providing respondent services
- Increasing access to community resources
- Creating a clear definition of equitable and equal
- Funding/conducting research for best practices
- Expanding the range of students served
- Informing and educating the campus community
